

Biography of Nadine Gilmore

Nadine Gilmore, a devoted Christian Educator, dedicated 30 years to Christian Education. She has been teaching Family Studies, Biology and Science at Bermuda Institute for 4 years. She committed 26 years at the Portland High School, North East Jamaica Conference, as an Administrator, Head of the Social, Technology and Ecology Department and a classroom teacher at the Caribbean Examination Certification (CXC) level, with an 80-100% success rate. She was an assessor for the Caribbean Secondary Examination Council for over ten years, and worked as a Certified Nutrition Officer at the Portland Health Department for three years.

Nadine holds a MA in Educational Administration; BSc. degrees in Secondary Education and Home Economics (Dietetics), from Northern Caribbean University; a Certificate in Technology Integration in Secondary School Curriculum, from Mico University, an endorsement for Principal, Teaching Certification for English, Science and Home Economics from the NAD and Certification in “Behavioral and Emotional Problems of Children” from Andrews University.

Nadine is the mother of three accomplished children and a proud grandmother of three beautiful girls. Her mantra is: With God all things are possible. She endeavors to live a life that exemplifies Christ through prayer and service to God and man.