

Biography of Shaianne Pierre - Nwadike

My name is Shaianne Pierre - Nwadike. I am a new teacher at Trinity Temple Academy teaching 6th- 8th grade. I was educated at Bethel Elementary School then Greater New York Academy and finally Andrews University, where I received both my undergraduate and graduate degrees in Education as a certified History Teacher for grades 6-12.

I was the high school History Teacher at South Brooklyn Academy now Northeastern Adventist Academy Brooklyn Campus 9-12. As a teacher my philosophy is that every student can learn given the right tools and supports. Home, church and school each have different responsibilities to help develop the characters of each student. True education will educate each child for now and eternity.
